

CITINet Partner Settlement

Unlock your partners' power!

The next generation service is growing rapidly and becomes more and more complex. You have to deal with numerous and various partnerships, as well as the settlement models. It is not easy to take the management of agreements and e-partner revenue and to keep your partner and virtual company. So CITINet's Partner Settlement can save you a lot of works on these. It also helps you to manage your revenue interactions profitable with service, content and channel partners.

Key Features of CITINet's Partner Settlement

The Capturing of Partner Relationships

It is able to hold and manage partners, resellers, customers, channels and other business relationships, with respect to various aspects of the agreement, including functional, technical, financial, administrative.

It is able to manage and settle Partnership agreements.

Management of Partner-oriented services

Management of Partner-based customer offerings

It is able to manage and bill customers for services rendered in cooperation with other service providers.

It is able to take the provision, usage collection and QoS management in a cross-service provider environment.

Cross-provider service fulfillment

Management of symmetrical agreements

It is able to view agreements from both ends.

It is able to manage relationships based on bi-directional revenue flow and several distinct sets of metrics.

Management of asymmetrical funds exchange

Management of multi-directional accounts

It is able to manage accounts between the service provider and customers/Partners (B2C and B2B), as well as manage a mesh of agreements.

It is able to brand various modules, including billing customers, building the web interface for customer self care, etc.

Branding capabilities

The ability to support virtual operators

It is able to scout out the various channels to take advantage of the already implemented billing and customer care solutions.

It is able to manage complex corporate structures in one system, including compartmentalization of information, offerings, customers, marketing programs, interfaces, look and feel and more.

Virtual Company

Key Benefits

● Easy Plug in

CITINet's Partner Management can easily convergent with the existing modules. Therefore, you are not necessary to rebuild your system, which really save your money and work. With the proven experience, the partner management module can be used at any time after its installation, you don't have to waste the time for adjustment or verification time and time again.

● All in One

CITINet's Partner Management can realize many functions in only one platform. It is not necessary to add other new modules to just fulfill your requirement. And as all operations can be done by one platform, the error risk is greatly reduced and you no more have to repeat the same operation. You can do it all in one time.

● Maximum the Revenue

All agreements can be done in one step so you now are free from the menial work on managing the partnerships. You can creatively leverage the partner relationships with its examine strategies and develop more new partner models for more revenue.