

Professional Consulting & Design Support Service

A strong supporter behind you!

It is vital to have a suitable solution to meet customers' needs and requirements. CITINet consulting is a global management and technology consulting organization committed to helping complex service organizations transform their business, drive additional revenue streams and reduce costs. We are helping the service providers plan, manage and execute large-scale transformations.

CITINet consulting brings a wealth of knowledge, experience best practices and most importantly a reputation for delivery excellence.

CITINet consulting team consists of the most experienced and talented professionals who bring industry best practices, visionary thought leadership and highly practical solution to your business.

Our consulting team works closely with customers on site to get fully understanding of their business and technical needs.

With the successful experience of other large project, we can ensure a smooth transition from project deployment to implementation and operation with minimal risk.

Leveraging nearly ten years of experience in communications, media and entertainment sector.

Consulting Benefits:

- 📊 Deliver an Intentional Customer Experience
- 📊 Drive Additional Revenue

- 📊 Control Cost
- 📊 Enabling Competencies

Assessment & Advisory services

CITINet assessment and advisory services will evaluate the risk on current system and enable you to gauge your position relative to industry benchmarks and helps create a tailored roadmap to move up the capability curve. Our advisory services address wide-sweeping issues like convergence, customer experience technology and network strategy.

Business optimization services

CITINet business optimization services enable you to measure, improve and continuously optimize the business performance of your systems, business processes and operations by utilizing current resources so that you can derive maximum benefit from your technology investments.

Transformation services

CITINet transformation services help you to fundamentally realign your business functions including systems and business processes to help meet your business objectives.

System infrastructure & architecture design services

CITINet system infrastructure and architecture design services help you to build the infrastructure of system and make a design of its architecture.